SIU President: Dr. Reynolds

President R. John Reynolds came to SIU in June of 2005. Prior his appointment, Dr. Reynolds served as President of Tri-State University in Angola, IN; Millikin University in Decatur, IL; Huron University, and National College in South Dakota. Dr. Reynolds also held faculty and administrative positions at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Northern Michigan University, Lake Superior State University, and New Hampshire College.

SIU Director of Athletics: Clark Maloney

Maloney earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Mid-America Nazarene University in Olathe, Kansas in 1990 and furthered his education with a Masters in Education from Azusa Pacific University (CA) in 1998. Maloney came to SIU from West Texas A&M University where he served as WTAMU'S basketball recruiting coordinator and assistant coach in charge of strength training, individual instruction of post players, practice development, scouting and on-court coaching. This Is Maloney's first year at SIU as our Director of Athletics.

Administrative Assistant: Amanda Sims

Amanda Sims is in her first year as the coordinator for the Athletics office. Amanda graduated from IADT in Fairmont with an Associates Degree in Computer Information Management. She also works part-time as a bartender at the Texas Steak House and Saloon.

Athletic Trainer: Pam Shield

As a Certified Athletic Trainer, Pam Shield has over 8 years experience with sport injury and sport management. She recently moved to West Virginia from Montana and while working with the University of Montana athletic program, she has received her Bachelor of Science in Health and Human Performance in 1999. Pam has also continued her education in finishing requirements for Master of Education from her alma mater and will provide some teaching this year at SIU. She enjoys activities with her husband that includes camping and hiking and we soon will see her on the downhill ski slope.
